TEVA AND BARR PROVIDE UPDATE ON ACQUISITION

- Barr Announces Debt Amendment
- Teva Announces Sufficient Funds to Complete Acquisition

Jerusalem, Israel and Montvale, NJ, October 27, 2008 – Teva Pharmaceutical Industries Ltd. (NASDAQ: TEVA) and Barr Pharmaceuticals, Inc. (NYSE: BRL) announced today that Barr and its syndicate of lending banks, arranged by Bank of America, have agreed to amend Barr's unsecured credit facilities to permit them to remain in place following Barr's acquisition by Teva.

"We are pleased that we have successfully negotiated with Barr's lenders to maintain these credit facilities, post-closing, under terms and conditions that meet our requirements," said Eyal Desheh, Teva's Chief Financial Officer. "The combination of the amended Barr credit facilities, Teva's available cash on hand and our committed bridge financing will provide us with sufficient funds to complete the acquisition of Barr as well as support the continued growth of our business."

The amendments to the credit facilities waive the lenders' right to call Barr's debt upon the change in control in connection with the acquisition by Teva, thereby allowing Barr's outstanding obligations under the credit facilities to remain in place following the closing of the acquisition. The facilities have outstanding balances of approximately $1.65 billion and $292 million that mature in October 2011 and June 2013, respectively. An additional revolving credit facility of $300 million is unutilized. As part of the amendments, effective upon closing, Teva will guarantee the obligations of the borrowers under the facilities.

"We appreciate the support our bank group has provided Barr over the years and view their willingness to agree to this amendment as further evidence of the strength of this combination," said Bill McKee, EVP and CFO of Barr.

Teva expects the acquisition to close by late 2008.

Safe Harbor Statement under the U. S. Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995:

The statements, analyses and other information contained herein relating to the proposed merger, financing, anticipated synergies, savings and financial and operating performance, including estimates for growth, trends in each of Teva Pharmaceutical Industries Ltd.'s and Barr Pharmaceutical, Inc.'s operations and financial results, the markets for Teva's and Barr's products, the future development of Teva's and Barr's business, and the contingencies and uncertainties to which Teva and Barr may be subject, as well as other statements including words such as "anticipate," "believe," "plan," "estimate," "expect," "intend," "will," "should," "may" and other similar expressions, are "forward-looking statements" under the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Such statements are made based upon management's current expectations and beliefs concerning future events and their potential effects on Teva and on Barr.

Actual results may differ materially from the results anticipated in these forward-looking statements. Important factors that could cause or contribute to such differences include whether and when the proposed acquisition will be consummated and the terms of any conditions imposed in connection with such closing, Teva's ability to rapidly integrate Barr's operations and achieve expected synergies, diversion of management time on merger-related issues, Teva and Barr's ability to accurately predict future market conditions, potential liability for sales of generic products prior to a final resolution of outstanding patent litigation, including that relating to the generic versions of Allegra®, Neurontin®, Lotrel®, Famvir® and Protonix®, Teva's and Barr's ability to successfully develop and commercialize additional pharmaceutical products, the introduction of competing generic equivalents, the extent to which Teva or Barr may obtain U.S. market exclusivity for certain of their new generic products and regulatory changes that may prevent Teva or Barr from utilizing exclusivity periods, competition from brand-name companies that are under increased pressure to counter generic products, or competitors that seek to delay the introduction of generic products, the impact of consolidation of our distributors and customers, the effects of competition on our innovative products, especially Copaxone® sales, the impact of pharmaceutical industry regulation and pending legislation that could affect the pharmaceutical industry, the difficulty of predicting U.S. Food and Drug Administration, European Medicines Agency and other regulatory authority approvals, the regulatory environment and changes in the health policies and structures of various countries, our ability to achieve expected results through our innovative R&D efforts, Teva's ability to successfully identify, consummate and integrate acquisitions (including the pending acquisition of Bentley Pharmaceuticals, Inc.), potential exposure to product liability claims to the extent not covered by insurance, dependence on the effectiveness of our patents and other protections for innovative products, significant operations worldwide that may be adversely affected by terrorism, political or economical instability or major hostilities, supply interruptions or delays that could result from the complex manufacturing of our products and our global supply chain, environmental risks, fluctuations in currency, exchange and interest rates, and other factors that are discussed in Teva's Annual Report on Form 20-F, Barr's Annual Report on Form 10-K and their other filings with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission. Forward-looking statements speak only as of the date on which they are made, and neither Teva nor Ivax undertakes no obligation to update publicly or revise any forward-looking statement, whether as a result of new information, future developments or otherwise.

This communication is being made in respect of the proposed merger involving Teva and Barr. In connection with the proposed merger, Teva has filed a registration statement on Form F-4 containing a proxy statement/prospectus for the stockholders of Barr, and Barr has filed a proxy statement for the stockholders of Barr, with the SEC. Before making any voting or investment decision, Barr's stockholders and investors are urged to read the proxy statement/prospectus regarding the merger and any other relevant documents carefully in their entirety because they contain important information about the proposed transaction. The registration statement containing the proxy statement/prospectus and other documents is available free of charge at the SEC's website, www.sec.gov. You may also obtain the proxy statement/prospectus and other documents free of charge by contacting Barr Investor Relations at 201-930-3720 or Teva Investor Relations at 972-3-926-7554 / 215-591-8912.

Teva, Barr and their respective directors and executive officers and other members of management and employees may be deemed to participate in the solicitation of proxies in respect of the proposed transaction. Information regarding Barr's directors and executive officers is available in Barr's proxy statement for its 2007 annual meeting of stockholders, which was filed with the SEC on May 15, 2008 and information regarding Teva's directors and executive officers is available in Teva's Annual Report on Form 20-F for the year ended December 31, 2007, which was filed with the SEC on February 29, 2008. Additional information regarding the interests of such potential participants will be included in the proxy statement/prospectus and the other relevant documents filed with the SEC.
